Farmingville, NY – On Thursday, April 6, Councilman Kevin LaValle visited Sachem Central School District's Sagamore Middle School to speak with 6th grade students. The Councilman and the students discussed local government projects going on in our community and he gave them the opportunity to ask questions. They also spoke about various aspects of government that affect their daily lives.

Councilman LaValle stated, "I really enjoy meeting with students to talk about how government works and how it affects their lives," said Councilman LaValle. "They asked some great questions and they seemed to enjoy our time together, I know that I did,"
